

1961 SUPPLEMENT
to the
COMPARISON OF STATE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAWS
as of January 1, 1960

The significant amendments to State and Federal unemployment insurance laws enacted during the calendar year 1960, except for Puerto Rico, are indicated below under the appropriate chapter headings so that the Comparison of State Unemployment Insurance Laws as of January 1, 1960 may be brought up to date. Page numbers and table or line references before each item indicate the appropriate tabulation or statement in the body of the Comparison which requires revision as a result of an amendment enacted in 1960.

Puerto Rico became a part of the Federal-State system of unemployment insurance as of January 1, 1961. In lieu of the extensive number of text and table changes necessary to incorporate the provisions of the Puerto Rico Employment Security Act in the Comparison, a summary of the major provisions of the law is attached. The next issue of the Comparison will include the provisions of the Puerto Rico law.
